

GAZE BURVILL Workshop: How to get there

Directions from London

Take the A3 South towards Guildford and Portsmouth, then just past Guildford take the A31 towards Winchester. Stay on the A31 past Alton until the dual carriageway ends as you enter the village of Four Marks. Take the first left into Telegraph Lane, signposted to the golf course. Then see below.

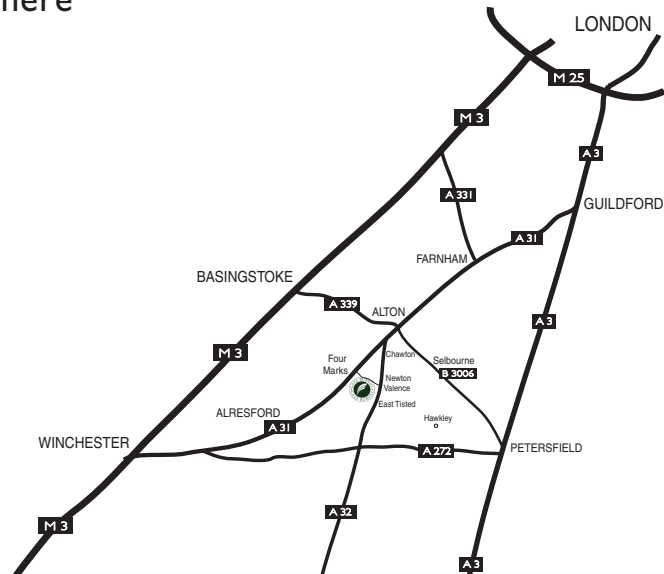

Directions from Winchester

Take the A31 North towards Alton, until you reach the village of Four Marks. Go through Four Marks until you pass a Peugeot garage on your left, and take the next right turn into Telegraph lane, signposted to the golf course. Then see below.

Directions from Petersfield

Take the A3 North to Liss. Exit left at roundabout and follow B3006 towards Selbourne. You soon reach the A31 just before Alton. Take the A31 South towards Winchester until you reach the village of Four Marks. As the dual carriageway ends and you enter the village, take the first left into Telegraph Lane, signposted to the golf course. Then see below.

Once in Telegraph Lane, follow the road which will take you past the golfcourse on your right. From here, take the second right turn (which is more or less straight on), then follow the signs through Newtonwood Farm to the Gaze Burvill

There are several interesting things to visit close to the workshop, from Jane Austen's house at Chawton, or Gilbert White's house in Selborne to a very hearty pub lunch at the Hawkey Inn. There are some beautiful walks all around us. Just call for further details, or we can give you the information when you come.
